WORKIN' MY LINGO

Gotta get that lingo down, gonna turn my life around though I won't get too profound, you'll know I'm bound for higher ground deep But if I'm full of pretense, cause my words are so immense and my thoughts phony display large are too intense hope this prevents an embarrassing sequence extreme in strength or degree I'm workin' my lingo oh-oh I once would guess - now I speculate guess
I used to blur now I obfuscate I don't say cool I say nonchalant confuse unconcerned
I don't say scholar I say savant learned scholar, wise man Gotta get my lingo up, cause without my words I'm stuck - don't try to interrupt with a little luck - you can hear my mind erupt - don't let me go too fast - want the words within your grasp - makin' this an easy task as the words go past is an awful lot to ask I'm workin' my lingo oh-oh - I once held back now I suppress conceal Things used to blend now they coalesce come together
I once would guess now I speculate - I used to blur now I obfuscate - I'm workin' ...
Instead of pertinent it's germane - now I don't show scorn I display disdain relevant contempt
I don't say cool, I say nonchalant - I don't say scholar I got savant - I'm workin' We're educated - motivated - stimulated moved to action to excite to growth
We're captivated - elevated - not manipulated attracted, fascinated handled dishonestly
Now I say plethora instead of a lot - and I'll say obtain when I once said got overabundance
I used to be vulgar - now I'm ribald crass, gross indecent, lewd
I was excused now I'm absolved - instead of calm I say phlegmatic cleared not easily excited Histrionic for over-dramatic-instead of indirect I get oblique melodramatic not straight forward
I issue an utterance I used to speak something expressed vocally
Instead of start I instigate stir up I don't destroy I obliterate - I'll say insipid instead of bland demolish flat, tasteless
If a guy's intrepid he's a fearless man - if a thing's unsavory it tastes bad brave flavorless
Now I get perturbed not a little mad - and instead of read now I peruse agitated glance over
I used to wonder now I muse while workin' my lingo oh-oh ... meditate, consider, contemplate

HALF OF ONE MORE CHANCE

Our love was evanescent it didn't last - vanished fast short-lived disappeared Thought it was incandescent - glowing from heat, radiant always would shine so bright .
Was I so oblique - just so indirect - not straight forward you couldn't connect with me maybe too opaque to let your light come through cloudy, unclear
I claim culpability - lay it right here on me responsibility
It's blame I deserve, I know, no don't act contemptuous full of scorn, disgust
I feel that you value us more than you show-oh-oh I know how I can be evasive but I'll tell you straight vague, misleading I'm keepin' open & I'll learn from the mistakes I make Unspoken problems can pervade, get into everything they spread & permeate go everywhere Gimme half of one more chance & I'll change, oh baby, just you wait Love can be capricious - a fickle thing - don't you think changeable Problems get pernicious and harm everything in sight damaging Coming from compassion sympathy for the suffering of others
I'll build a bridge from love and from empathy Insidious walls will all come tumbling down evil I'll make sure complacency, self satisfaction, indifference won't get the best of me - what's nurtured through time can grow nourished
I can't guess our destiny - my soul and the rest of me, can't let you go-oh I know somehow you'll capitulate give in, surrender if I can find a way to demonstrate that I've reformed, show changed transformed - yeah I see the light altered in character

I DON'T WORSHIP YOU

If self-indulgence was the mark of a great man giving in to selfish desires Then you'd win hands down there's no one else around Prodigious egos wavin' all over town huge
They don't have a clue - they could learn from you If you had the time your capacious mind roomy, large could come up with better things to do then live for only you Your reputation for self-adulation self-admiration, conceitedness isn't fabrication, you need someone who won't tell you the truth made-up, a lie I don't worship you - so you'll try to prove that this heart of mine is yours to convert in time change, transform You're notorious for what I call laborious well known fatiguing, tiresome but this time you picked a heretic non believer No - I don't worship you
The way you deprecate everyone around put down Shows me just how low your insecurity goes And your pomposity's a big side-show arrogance, self-importance It's what you use as diversion from your self-aversion distraction self-hatred Were you kind once upon a time, did you find that didn't work for you, you weren't getting through I'd be elated, if you got deflated, thrilled reduced in size, importance someone should annihilate the monster that you've turned into destroy I guess I'm gettin' a bit vitriolic harsh, bitter I see the you - you hide underneath but it's not my job to change you, I'd just end up down on my knees - and

I AIN'T GOT

She's so loquacious, tenacious, talkative persistent, sticks to things Sagacious - but not too spacious wise large, wide She's inscrutable, beautiful - it's irrefutable mysterious, incomprehensible undeniable Never meek with us, obsequious, salutary when she speaks with us submissive wholesome Munificent, benevolent, yeah she's magnificent generous helpful, kind
But she won't go out with me - because ... I ain't got a good enough vocabulary No-no-no she ain't got time for me - because ... I ain't got a good enough vocabulary word -- no rhetic -- word -- overblown, empty language She'll often elevate, elucidate - wish I could get a date lift up, raise make clear Felicitous, solicitous - her smile's ubiquitous appropriate concerned everywhere Persistent, consistent, only somewhat distant determined in effort unwavering Un-suspicious, does the dishes, bet her kisses are delicious distrustful She's benevolent, relevant, even grandiloquent kind to the purpose showy use of language Perceptive, reflective, and circumspective aware thoughtful cautious She's imperious, I'm serious - makes me delirious bossy crazy
So I been workin' on my definitions, long divisions too - in case she also needs someone who's good in math - and byreachin' way up - for a higher education I've been changin' the trajectory of my path curved outline (of a launched body's flight)
Now I'm tenacious, audacious, so loquacious persistent daring talkative
I'm magnanimous - plan on this - never pusillanimous generous cowardly But now I won't go out with her - because ...
Now that I understand her she's pernicious, malicious & surreptitious damaging nasty sneaky Nefarious, the scariest, she's Aquarius, inconsistent, vitamin deficient wicked wavering lacking She's dogmatic, erratic, idiosyncratic, unchangeable unpredictable quirky she's petty and sweaty - like who - like your cousin Betty and unimportant you won't go out with her because ... she's got an arbitrary, random, not based on reason elementary, rudimentary, fundamentally limited voca - bu -lary! beginners basically
What is up with this word spendthrift ... ? someone who spends money like crazy

THAT I LOVE YOU

I've got - major motivation drive, enthusiasm
I wake up and experience elation, I'm not joy, delight torn up - hampered by frustration - everything feels right held back I could - do a dissertation a lengthy formal piece of writing
On how much you're - causing these sensations, baby
I want full participation in the rest of your life - oh baby involvement You're magnetic, sympathetic, audio & photogenic & on top of that I love you Oh yeah you're so consistent - hate resistant unwavering repellent, defiant Am I being too persistent determined in effort Letting you know how much it's true - that I love you We know - honesty's a virtue, and I swear now, quality of goodness
I will never hurt you, may my heart stop if I ever desert you but I can't see how I know it may be imprudent to gush on and on, unwise instead of being brilliant, but if I blush I'm way beyond ebullient enthusiastic I can't turn back now - oh baby, baby, baby You show feelings, you're not stoic, in my book you're so heroic indifferent
You know it - I know it too.
You can be philanthropic giving time & money to help others un-myopic - pardon me what was the topic unable to see things far away Oh yeah, just how much it's true - that I love you I know you - feel it too - fervid eyes - say it's true intense, impassioned Could these feelings abate - no they couldn't lessen, subside Felt this right - off the bat - we go deep - we know that Will I take all this back - no I couldn't - I wouldn't ... You're magnetic sympathetic, un-frenetic, empathetic frantic ability to share another's feelings

HANGIN' AROUND YOU

I've been lonely - watchin' the sunset on an esplanade walkway I've been happy - writin' in my head to the dissonance on some boulevard noise, disharmony I've wined and dined with the best and slumped with the rest I've been where I can say whatever I want and where everything's suppressed held back, censored I've been east - I've been west I've been everywhere that's consequential important I've been north and way south I've met anyone's who's influential powerful Thought I'd see it all with all I'd been through But I finally felt I got somewhere When I found myself just hangin' around you I've been discursive, coercive, subversive, wordy intimidating rebellious I've given in to despair I've been compliant, reliant, willing to give in accommodating defiant, and somewhere in between nowhere disobedient I've debated kings - placated queens argued with pacified
I've been desolate - broke - and had unlimited means destroyed I would relinquish it all put aside, abandon For just one moment with you ...

TRANSPARENT LIES

Furtive lies and insinuation devious indirect suggestion
All designed to tarnish my reputation blemish, taint
And devised by you without explanation invented, concocted Tell me why - why ya spreading all these lies I'll try hard to end all this chaos confusion, turmoil
But when you disparage me - you betray us discredit
Said we'd be friends until the end and now I'm crushed Tell me why - why ya feel a need to lie Baby lies - they poison everything in sight
Those who lie - can never keep track or take them back Baby lies - keep messin' with your sleep at night Ya never can disguise Transparent lies see through Words you said continue to taunt me provoke, insult
And the way you've squandered love, well it haunts me wasted Baby open up your eyes - maybe you'll see Your heart cries - listen and apologize I got a story you oughta tell About a girl who loved a guy more than life itself But he got overwhelmed overcome completely and undermined himself - telling lies destroyed by degree Flagrant lies... glaringly scandalous

SHE'S OFF THE HOOK

I never knew - I never saw - I never got what happened till she came and went and had been gone for days She was enervating, stimulating, I'm still waiting able to weaken arousing for her next return and her capricious ways changeable First she's terse - then loquacious to the point talky, chatty Barely there - then perspicacious having a powerful, penetrating mind
Don't deride her she'll disappear mock, ridicule
And I just want her here
She goes right for your soul she won't procrastinate postpone
She's off the hook
Has a look in her eyes that can debilitate - she's off the hook injure, weaken She'll find your heart and she'll ameliorate - she is off the hook make better
I never knew my head was spinnable - she's off the hook Her effect on me is more than subliminal beneath consciousness
One look and you'll be unequivocal - She is off the hook certain I won't malign, I can't define, tried to design a woman speak ill of with her qualities - I blew my own mind She's a dichotomy two contradictory parts - that exist together
I want to be inside her head to see how she makes chills - go up and down my spine She'll be banal - then erudite commonplace scholarly, enlightened Spend indolent days - work all night lazy
Her ambiguities stay unclear characteristics open to interpretation
And I just want her here
She's a paradox but my heart unlocks whenever I'm around her contradiction
I don't dangle bait - I don't mind the wait - I'm just glad I found her

DO THE ANTONYM DANCE

Yes-no stop-go definitely-I don't know augment-decrease enlarge war-peace dubious-sure defiled-pure doubtful contaminated candor-lies revere-despise honesty honor to look down on

Do the antonym dance - do the antonym dance - opposite you take 2 steps back - I advance - do the antonym dance

Apathetic-carin' a lot totally stoic-sharin' a lot indifferent showing no emotion Spontaneous-rehearsed very blessed-really cursed guided by instinct euphonious - cacophonous melodious harsh sounding tiny little village- metropolis uplifting-morose large city gloomy immaculate-gross extremely clean

I do-you don't I will-you won't come on-go off yes-no servile-dominant servant-like exercising the most influence or control concealed-prominent hidden sticking out, noticeable enigmatic-transparent mysterious, puzzling easy to see through obscure-apparent difficult to understand or find readily understood or seen austere-relaxed strict, severe in appearance laid back-taxed under strain, burdened you're steadfast -you acquiesce firm, faithful give in things fall apart-they coalesce come together mollify-harass calm, ease annoy, irritate, torment ephemeral-made to last... short lived, fleeting

Are you my adversary - I'm on your side opponent, enemy You're so incendiary - I'm cool as ice tending to inflame Stop contradicting me - All I do is agree disagreeing with, challenging
We fight all day - We've been at peace all night

OUR LOVE NEEDS NO WORDS

She came from Ecuador in '94, she was rich, I was poor, but her parents never paid attention to her so she studied English with a vengeance, to an extreme knew all her declensions, taught me words conjugations, aspect of grammar I found pretentious till I learned how words could open doors showy
If I was exact - I could extract - the smallest fact remove with effort with a little tact, I had a knack for learning every time she spoke diplomacy And I learned new words to say before she woke, yeah like,
" The day is splendiferous and though the traffic's vociferous magnificent loud, noisy bless me with all your munificence and we'll walk great generosity And if our stroll is protracted and possibly droll then, stretched out amusingly strange the fact is, we could digress and be desultory as we talk." depart from subject aimless Now I know it sounds all implausible and all, but it's true and it makes her feel hard to believe like a princess at a ball - it's like we have our own language, sometimes we try it in Spanish, but what gets me most - is when she turns to me and says - she sings - Our love needs no words - I can feel what you feel inside - our love needs no words hold my hand and let's enjoy the ride - our love needs no words

Now I wasn't coerced - and it isn't rehearsed, at times forced by threats we're packin' our words real tight and makin' 'em pointed and terse to the point She's ingenious - I mean this - I've seen this - clever, imaginative She'll use words to rejuvenate and educate, refuel, fill with energy illuminate, one minute she's kinetic make clear, brighten relating to motion then aesthetic, never apathetic of or relating to beauty lacking interest Her words can lacerate, ameliorate, never second rate wound, hurt make better So I'm standin' there try'n' to figure her out - and I look perplexed, confused she can be so complex - then she gets all complicated demonstrative and purrs in my ear and you know what I hear ... displaying affection openly
