

NOTHING LIKE A DOG

Words & Music by Judy Pancoast © 2000

There's nothing like a dog on which you can depend,
A dog is always there to be your loyal friend;
A dog will want to hear about your rotten day,
And when you're feeling better she'll always want to play.
There's nothing like a dog, nothing like a dog!
But if you can't have a dog there's always a hamster;
If you have an allergy a hamster's the answer.
He stays up all night, keeping you awake
Running in his wheel and planning his escape;
And when he's finally free he'll hide in the couch;
Sit down to watch TV, little hamster teeth go, "Ouch!"
But there's nothing like a dog when you are feeling down;
When no one has the time, your dog's always around;
At night when you are sleepy, he'll climb up on your bed
And you can fall a-sleepy scratching on his head...
But if you can't have a dog, you might have a reptile;
A lizard or a gecko is sure to make your Mom smile;
He'll lie around all day basking in the sun
But when you want to play he really isn't fun
Still he prob'ly won't get loose and bite you on the fanny;
Put him to good use when you want to scare your Granny!
But there's nothing like a dog, just like Scooby-Doo;
To go on an adventure, a "big explore" with you;
And when you come home stinky, smelling like a hog,
Just give your Mom a winky and blame it on your dog!
But if you can't have a god there's always a tarantula
If you live in an apartment, or even on a ranch-ula;
Tarantula's are neat, they don't make any noise,
They're really good for scaring naughty girls and boys,
They don't need a leash, they don't need a collar,
Put one in your cousin's bed and listen to him holler!
"Did you do it? Did you do it?"
"Yes, I did. Be quiet!"

"Where'd ya put it? Where'd ya put it?"

"I put it on his pillow, now be quiet!"

"Oh this is gonna be so good, I wish I could take a picture."

"Right about now it should be crawling right up his....."

SCREAM!

There's nothing like a dog, nothing like a dog, nothing like a dog!
