

SWIMMING IN JELLO

Words & Music by Judy Pancoast © 1997

I had a crazy dream the other night;
I fell asleep as soon as I turned out the light.
I dreamed that I was by the riverside.
And on the other side, my sister stood
With a hot fudge sundae that looked really good;
She said that I could eat it if I made it to the other side.
So I jumped in, and tried to swim

CHORUS:

But I was swimming in Jello, The Jello was yellow,
Jello 'tween my toes and in my hair;
I was swimming in Jello, The Jello was yellow;
Swimming in Jello but I wasn't getting anywhere.
Oh well, I don't know what was in my head;
It must have been that pizza that I ate before bed
That made me have that wild and crazy dream.
Because I couldn't dog paddle and I couldn't do the crawl;
I tried to eat the Jello but I couldn't eat it all,
I had to save some room for that ice cream.
So I jumped in, and tried to swim

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE:

And then when I looked down below me what a strange sight I did see
There were gummy fish and gummy whales
And gummy mermaids with gummy tails!

REPEAT CHORUS

When I woke up the sun was shining.
My Mama came in 'cause she heard me whining!
She said, "My dear, what gave you such a fright?"
So I told her about my crazy dream
About the yellow Jello and the fudge ice cream,
And she said, "No more pizza late at night!"
'Cause I jumped in, and tried to swim...."
