

LADYBUG, LADYBUG

Words & Music by Judy Pancoast © 1997

CHORUS:

Ladybug, ladybug (ladybug, ladybug)
Ladybug, ladybug (ladybug, ladybug)
Ladybug, ladybug (ladybug, ladybug)
La, la, la, la, ladybug
You're a friend to all the flowers,
Eating flower-eatin' bugs.
And I could hang around with you for hours.
I wish that I could give you hugs,
Oh, oh, oh

REPEAT CHORUS

You like to fly around my garden
Covered in those little spots.
And I was wondering, I beg your pardon,
Do you have the chicken pox?
Oh, oh, oh

REPEAT CHORUS

I used to think bugs were disgusting,
Beetle bugs, spiders and slugs!
But you're so little, and so trusting;
You're the queen of all the bugs!
