DREAMY EYES

One glance and I realize:
Love is something that you can't disguise,
And love is all I can see

When I look in those DREAMY EYES
My words become tender sighs,
And I know that I'm in paradise--
Holding you here close to me.

No matter what you do.
No matter what you say,
Your DREAMY EYES give you away...
Well you can try to deny,
But you know in the end,
You'll always be a dreamer, my friend...

DREAMY EYES

Life is meant to be fantasized.
Pleasant dreams, my little DREAMY EYES
You're all I dreamed you would be...
