

FOR BABY

When Mr. Sun wakes up
He makes a buttercup...FOR BABY
Every cloud above
Floats in a heart of love... FOR BABY
All of the birdies and all of the bees say,
"Tweet, Baby, Tweet!"
And all of the fishes blow bubbles and kisses 'cause
You're... so... sweet.

Crickets clap their wings
Until the forest sings... FOR BABY
And the August breeze
Whispers symphonies... FOR BABY
All of the dewdrops in all of the trees say,
"Drip, Drip, Hooray!"
And all of the branches tap time and start dancin' 'cause
It's... your... day!

As Mr. Sun sinks low
The world begins to glow... FOR BABY
And there's a brand new moon
That sparkles silver too... FOR BABY
All of the heavens and all of the stars say,
"Shine, Baby, Shine!"
And all through the universe, they celebrate your birth
One... more... time!
