

13. HE'S GOT THE WHOLE WORLD IN HIS HANDS.

This track offers a chance to pronounce family names using a repeated or differing consonant and vowel. The karaoke track (24) lets you sing about your own family members or create your own words entirely.

He's got Mama in his hands. He's got mama in his hands.
He's got mama in his hands. The whole world's in his hands.

He's got Poppy in his hands. He's got Poppy in his hands.
He's got Poppy in his hands. The whole world's in his hands.

He's got Nana in his hands. He's got Nana in his hands.
He's got Nana in his hands. The whole world's in his hands.

He's got Daddy in his hands. He's got Daddy in his hands.
He's got Daddy in his hands. The whole world's in his hands.

The last verse is sung gently on "ooh" so you can end with the beloved of your choice.