

Spring Has Sprung

Spring has sprung
Spring has sprung

And every flower under the sun
Is reaching up to touch the sky

Spring has sprung
Spring has sprung

And leaves are sprouting one by one
From branches on the trees so high

The bees are busy as they can be
And birds are singing so happily

The water flows and the grass is green
As far as we can see

Spring has sprung
Spring has sprung

With gentle rain and the golden sun
All things will spring 'til the spring is done
