

Red Balloon

Have you seen my red balloon
Soaring through the sky
Way up high
Way up high

Have you seen my red balloon
I let go of the string and watched it fly
Watched it fly

It's soaring higher than the trees
Racing past the clouds, roaming free
With the breeze

How I love my red balloon
Shining bright, but almost out of sight
Out of sight

Have you seen my red balloon
I let go of the string and now it's gone
Now it's gone

My red balloon has gone away
But here inside my heart, it still remains
Everyday

And I still see my red balloon
Soaring through the sky, in my mind
Let it fly...
