

WHO I AM

by Chris Arms and Annie Lynn (copyright 2014)

Intro: 4 measures of instrumental/guitar

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo, doo doo doo (2X)

Verse 1:

You can choose your path
Pick what you think is best
But let me find my way
We all know that life's a test

A teacher once said to me,
Be who you were meant to be
Honesty can be your source
Hold on fast and stay the course, cause

You have big dreams, let them stay
Now the time has come to say...

CHORUS:

This is who I am
I hope that you will see
That you have the choice
To be really free
This is who I am
Take a look at me
Open up your mind, Love is what you'll find

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo, doo doo doo (1) (drum break)

Verse 2: (same as 1st verse)

You can choose your path
Pick what you think is best
But let me find my way
We all know that life's a test

A teacher once said to me,
Be who you were meant to be
Honesty can be your source
Hold on fast and stay the course, cause

You have big dreams, let them stay
Now the time has come to say...

CHORUS:

This is who I am
I hope that you will see
That you have the choice
To be really free
This is who I am
Take a look at me
Open up your mind, Love is what you'll find

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo, doo doo doo (2X)

I have big dreams, let them stay
Now the time has come to say...

DOUBLE CHORUS:

This is who I am
I hope that you will see
That you have the choice
To be really free
This is who I am
Take a look at me
Open up your mind, Love is what you'll find

Love is what you'll find
When you open up your mind... LOVE IS WHAT YOU'LL FIND !!!
