

I Still Don't Like Asparagus

by Barry Louis Polisar

As I get older I'm beginning to see
Changes that are happening to me
I'm liking things I never used to like
Like yogurt, squash and riding my bike
I like to sit with girls; I like to ride the bus
But I still don't like asparagus
I still don't like asparagus

I like prunes and broccoli
Mushrooms and celery
Finally I've learned to love rain
Bok Choy, quiche and chicken chow mein
I think the theater is fabulous
But I still don't like asparagus
I still don't like asparagus

I like to go to bed instead of staying up at night
I used to be closed minded now I'm neither left or right
I like to eat arugula, eggplant and artichokes
I like oatmeal, okra and egg yolks
I like my little sister and I know must Learn to like.....asparagus
I'll never ever like asparagus
