

The Windy Day (spoken rhythmically)

Walk alone with others, in a circle or straight line. Turn around to change direction on the last line! Go just a little faster with each repetition – to the point of running if your space and abilities allow!

There was a man in our town, went for a walk one day
The wind it blew so very hard, it turned him the other way!