

There's a Dog in School by Bill Wellington ©1998

There's a dog in school, oh no! (hands to face)
What are we going to do? (hands to sides, questioning)
As long as there's a dog in school (wag pointer finger)
He'll have to learn his alphabet, too! (hands on hips)

Woof the Alphabet Song! Then repeat with other animals, ending with "There are kids in school!" I ask just the kids to sing the Alphabet Song to me – it's really neat! Sometimes a child you wouldn't expect will emerge as the song leader.
