

Everybody Dance! Melody by Clarence Goodman, lyrics by Carole Stephens ©2019 v.1

You may live in a city. I may live in a town.

We can still be friends. We all can dance around!

Chorus:

Hands up'n'down. Touch the ground. Turn around.

Everybody dance!

v.2 I might have a dog, you might have a cat
We can still be friends – let's agree on that.

v.3 My skin may white, your skin may be brown
We can still be friends – let's all dance around!
