

Who Will Be My Friend? Lyric by Carole Stephens ©2010

Melody: "Here We Go 'Round the Mulberry Bush"

Who will be my friend today
Friend today, friend today?
Who will be my friend today,
This bright and sunny morning?

(3 children each carry a heart around the outer part of the room – the rest of the children sit together in the center, clapping to the beat. At the end of this verse, each walking child gives the heart to a sitting child, then they walk holding hands around the outside of the group singing:)

You will be my friend today,
Friend today, friend today!
You will be my friend today
This bright and sunny morning!

(teacher collects hearts, the couples sit in the center and 3 new walkers are chosen to start again.)
