

Everybody Has a Face Lyric by Carole Stephens ©2002 Melody: “Old MacDonald”

Everybody has a face, E I E I O
And on our face we have 2 eyes, E I E I O
With a blink blink here, And a blink blink there
Here a blink, there a blink, Everywhere a blink blink
Everybody has a face, E I E I O!

(repeat with mouth – kisses, nose – beep beep, and cheeks – puff puff! If they’re up to it add eyebrows– wiggle wiggle! Some may be able to do this on the first try, but most toddlers take practice with a mirror!)

Make a flannelboard visual: cut large circle of tan, beige or brown felt – look for the multi-cultural felts for different face colors. Add a shock of hair if you like – or a complete do! Cut 2 eyes, 1 nose, 1 mouth. Optional add-ons: 2 eyebrows, 2 cheeks!

NOTE: Children may shout out “legs” or “arms” – have a mirror handy to have them take a look – are there legs on their face? (probably not!)
