Today is Saturday
Today is Saturday
Saturday we go to Chinatown. We have Chung Chung Chicken.
All you hungry children come and eat it up.

Today is Sunday
Today is Sunday
Sunday, American's favorite desert. Ice cream!
All you hungry children come and eat it up.

Each day is represented by taking the letter hand of the beginning letter and moving it in a circle, in front of the right side of your body (palm facing in).

Thursday is a "T" into an "H". Sunday is the "5" hands on both sides of shoulders moving outward two times.
