“Grandfather Tree”

(Claudia Robin Gunn)

Grandfather tree
Tell me the sights that you’ve seen
All of the years that you’ve stood
Watching out over my neighbourhood

Grandfather tree
Tell me the stories you know
From all of the years that you’ve grown
Rising tall, here at the corner of my street

Grandfather tree
Sing me your leaf lullaby
Under your branches I’ll hide
And I will sleep here in the shade of your leaves

Grandfather tree
Shelter me, shelter me, shelter me, shelter me

Grandfather tree
Whisper your secrets of old
Show me the visions you hold
Send me your dream
So many years in the making ...

Grandfather tree
Shelter me, shelter me, shelter me, shelter me
