“Dandelion Clock”

(Claudia Robin Gunn)

One puff is all it takes to blow the seeds away
That's the time on my dandelion clock
I watch them coast on by, drift like butterflies
Fuzzy white wings on my dandelion clocks

Two puffs to make them fly, all the seeds up high
Telling the time with a dandelion
All my wishes come true as they sail the blue

One o'clock
Two o'clock
Three o'clock
Four o'clock

Tick tock, tick tock x5
Tick tock, tick tick
Tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick
Tick, tick tock

Into the summer haze I see them float away
I say goodbye to my dandelion clocks
All my wishes come true as they sail the blue

How many puffs to blow the seeds away
That's the time they say
All my wishes come true as they sail the blue

Tick tock, tick tock x5
Tick tock, tick tick
Tick, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick tock
