“Seaweed Story”

(Claudia Robin Gunn)

In the forest under the sea
It's a beautiful place to just be
Sea dragons fly
In a seaweed jungle sublime

The kelp goes swoosh and swish and whoosh
As the currents flow by
The kelp goes tickle and tumble and trickle
As waves roll and sun shines in in lines

In the forest of the ocean
There's a tangle of life and it's always in motion
Sea lions play
Spider crabs scavenge and graze

And the kelp goes swoosh and swish and whoosh
As the currents flow by
The kelp goes tickle and tumble and trickle
As waves roll and sun shines in in lines

In the forest under the waves
There's a fascinating parade
Watch out for the urchins
They'll take over if you let 'em

The kelp goes swoosh and swish and whoosh
As the currents flow by
The kelp goes tickle and tumble and trickle
As waves roll and sun shines in in lines

This is a seaweed story
