“We Are All Waves”

(Claudia Robin Gunn)

We are all waves x3

We are all waves on the same sea
We are all leaves on the same tree
We are all flowers in the same garden
Sleeping underneath the same stars

We have our own rivers and mountains
We have our own boats trying to stay afloat in
We share the same sun, moon and sky
Together can we all raise the tide?

Everybody feels the waves
Everybody feels the weight
Everybody needs to know when this ends
Everybody needs to hug their best friend

And we roll and we roll and we roll and we roll

We are all sandgrains on the same beach
We are all chapters in the same story
We are all pieces of the same whole
Living on an orbiting globe

We are all ripples in the same stream
We are all thoughts in a beautiful dream
We have our own chart and our own direction
To paddle til we all can be free

Everybody feels the waves
Everybody feels the weight
Everybody needs to know when this journey ends
Everybody needs to hug their best friend
So much going on
Everybody's feeling changed
Everybody feels the waves
Everybody feels the waves
