

CRAZY WITH HAPPINESS

words and music by Dave Kinnoin
©2016 Song Wizard Music (ASCAP)

verse one:

We've been traveling about an hour or so.
My mother says we have about a minute to go.
She pulls up to the zoo.
We pile out, and here's what I do:
I go...

chorus:

Crazy, I confess.
Crazy with happiness.

verse two:

So, we have our fun, then it's time to leave.
I still have pony hair stuck on my sleeve.
We walk up to our front door.
We're the ones our dog has been waiting for.
She goes...

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

It's a perfect day so far, I'd say,
And someone very special is on his way.

verse three:

Dinner's on the stove—time to close my book,
Go to the window, and have a look.
My dad comes home from work on time,
Gives me a hug, and sees that I'm Goin'...

(repeat chorus)