verse one:

Poochie rounds up a pig that got out of its pen,
Chases off a raccoon that’s been eyein’ a hen,
Brings the newspaper up, drops it right at my feet.
Wiggle-waggily tail says, “It’s time for a treat.”

chorus:

Poochie does all that.
Poochie does all that.
Poochie does all that
For a biscuit.

verse two:

Poochie wakes up the neighbors at the first whiff of smoke,
Nudges Mom back on the trail ‘fore she steps in poison oak.
Pulls a kid off of the ice at the sound of a crack.
Wiggle-waggily tail says “You owe me a snack.”

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

It’s one amazin’ thing after another!
Our hero proceeds unafraid.
All praise accepted, no hugs rejected,
But Poochie still wants to get paid.

verse three:

Now I’m writing a song—only gotten so far.
Poochie dances around as I play my guitar.
Kindly offers a howl to complete the last chord.
Wiggle-waggily tail says, “I’ve earned a reward.”

(repeat chorus)
