JUST LIKE MAGIC

words and music by Randy Sharp and Dave Kinnoin

verse one:
I used to fill my days with wonder,
But all of that musta got away from me.
You know how it is in the day-to-day—
Things that matter most kinda slip away.

chorus:
And then just like magic, I was ten feet off the ground.
Just like magic, my whole world went to spinnin' around.
I was stuck, but Lady Luck had somethin' hidin' up her sleeve,
And then just like magic, I found a love like you wouldn't believe.

verse two:
Lookin' back, I was holdin' on
A little too tight to reality.
I had a long list of what I couldn't do.
I'd even given up on a dream or two.

(repeat chorus)

bridge:
Ooo-wheee, it feels good when the chains are broken.
Ooo-wheee, I was thinkin' I would never be free.

(repeat chorus)
