intro (mermaid):
I can hear him calling,
Though we're worlds apart.
I am always near his song,
For it echoes in my heart.
He says…

verse one:
I'm takin' my sweetie to the Seaweed Café.
I'll hop on my seahorse and whisk her away.
Life would be thrillin' if she would be willin'
To dine at the Seaweed Café.

verse two:
We'll float through the entrance at Mossy Moon Bay.
A garden of goodies will be on display.
The door fish will greet us and graciously seat us
Tonight at the Seawood Café.

bridge (mermaid):
I would be honored to go there
With a handsome young escort like you.
Beautiful music will flow there,
Whirling and swirling a sweet dream in deep green and blue.

verse three:
We'll study the menu as the headwaiter serves
Some bubble kelp sodas and algae hors d'oeuvres.
We'll get what we need—plenty of seaweed
And a little kiss, if it's okay.
Tonight at the Seaweed Café.

second half of bridge (mermaid):
Beautiful music will flow there,
Whirling and swirling a sweet dream in deep green and blue.

verse four:
I'm takin' my sweetie to the Seaweed Café.
I'll hop on my seahorse and whisk her away.
Dinner plans were made for one little mermaid
And someone who hopes she will say,
"Let's dine at the Seaweed Café."
