

HIGH-PAYING JOB

words and music by Dave Kinnoin

verse one:

There's somethin' I want.
I saw it on TV.
The only, only, only problem is
It's a little too expensive for me.
I'm gonna ask my neighbor, ask my mom and dad.
I'm gonna say I really, really, really wish I had...

chorus one:

A high-payin' job.
I'm a few bucks short.
A high-paying job.
C'mon, be a sport.
Consider my request
And gimme your support.
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a high-payin' job.
(Sooner than later would be good.)

verse two:

I know there must be somethin',
Somethin' I can do
That has some value in the marketplace.
That marketplace is you.
Yes, it is.
May I please fill your coffee cup?
By the way, could you please come up
With a...

chorus two:

High-payin' job?
Perhaps your pets need feedin'?
A high-payin' job.
I think your garden needs weedin'.
In case I wasn't clear,
It's employment that I'm needin'.
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a high-payin' job.
I do.

bridge:

In today's economy, a kid can be
On a strong financial course.
If you could assist me some,
I could become
A bona fide member of the working force.
That's what I want.

chorus three:

High-payin' job.
My pocket needs a deposit.
I need a high-payin' job.
How 'bout if I clean your closet?
I need an influx of money,
And you could cause it.
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a,
I need a...

chorus four:

High-payin' job.
Aw, shucks.
I need a high-payin' job.
I only need eleven bucks.
I need it right away.
Won't you make my day?
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a,
I need a...

chorus five:

High-payin' job.
I promise to do my best.
You know, I'd like to make twenty dollars
So I could save the rest.
That's nine bucks in the bank,
And I'd have you to thank!
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a,
I need a...

chorus six:

High-payin' job.
It's a noble endeavor.
I need a high-payin' job.
I'll be your buddy forever.
My dream could be real.
I would sure feel better.
Oh, my, my, my, my, I need a,
I need a...
High-payin' job.
