NIGHT LIGHT

verse one:
I play a little game before I hit the sack:
I get out all my night lights and make a little stack.
I choose the one I want and plug it in the jack.
I verify it's workin' well—when it may fail is hard to tell.
And so…

verse two:
I have a back-up light that runs on batteries.
It's waterproof and rugged for all emergencies.
I keep it in my drawer—it helps me get my zees.
It guarantees a happy glow, and like some other kids I know…

chorus:
I feel so secure when my night light is on.
It keeps away the scary things till darkness is gone.
I know in my heart everything is all right.
No need to fear—my friend is here.
The night light.
The night light, night light.

verse three:
I'm deep inside a dream—it's dark around my bed.
I grab my extra night light—the batteries are dead.
Now what's that slimy thing that's wrapped around my head?
I wake up and it's clear to see it's just my puppy licking me.
My night light's workin.'

(repeat chorus)

verse four:
A monster in the hall is knockin' on my door.
"Come in, you little bozo, I've met your kind before."
The night light zaps him hard and makes his eyes real sore.
He leaves the room and starts to cry.
I blow the chump a kiss good-bye.

(repeat chorus)
