LOCOMOTIVATION

verse one:
I get off my bike under a tree,
Lie down for a nap, just my dog 'n' me.
In the clouds I see an engine,
Some cars, and a caboose.
Then a voice calls, "All aboard!"
And I just let it all run loose.

chorus:
Locomotivation—a railroad extreme,
A fiery desire to blow some steam.
Woo-hooo, clickety-clack,
I ride my train of thought
To dreamland and back.
Locomotivation.
Locomotivation.

verse two:
All the scenery goes by quick
As back down to earth Poochie chews a stick.
In the dining car, I snack on Cashew nuts and iced green tea.
"Howdy-do?" asks the conductor,
And I reply, "Da-da-dan-dan-dan-dee!"

(repeat chorus)

bridge:
What causes me to wile away
The afternoon, to smile away?
What makes my heart go chug and clank
When I give that whistle pull cord a mighty yank?
Locomotivation.
(repeat chorus)
