The Magic Word

Yo, lots of times when I ask for something
This is what I've heard,
"Well, maybe I'll give you what you want
If you use the magic word."

"The magic word?" I say,
"Are you just trying to tease?"
And then they'll answer back to me
That the magic word is please.
So I say please.

Chorus:
"Please," I say, "please."
It's the magic word.
"Please," I say, "please."
It's the magic word.

So why is this word so special?
And why does it work so well?
Well, how about just give it a try,
And maybe time will tell?
You can't always get what you want,
No, there's no guarantees.
But you can get things easier
With the magic word—please.

Chorus

Use that magic, use that magic,
Use that magic word.
"Can I please have some more?"
"Please pass the ketchup."
"Can I please have a turn?"
"Please don't push."
"Please don't talk to me like that."
"Can I please have my presents now?"
"May I please be excused?"
"Can I please borrow your bike?"
"Please let me play too."
"Mrs. Huyett, may I please have some more homework?"
