

We're On Our Way to Washington

(Tom Paxton, Pax Records, 1989)

(Refrain)

We're on our way to Washington,
to Washington, DC.

We're on our way to Washington,
my family and me.

We're riding in our little car
and we're so very lucky.
We're here in Washington. Oh no!
It's Washington, Kentucky.

Chorus:

We're rolling down the highway,
beneath a sunny sky.
We're rolling down the highway,
and the miles are flying by.
We're off to see the country,
we never had such fun.
We're rolling down the highway,
on our way to Washington.

(Refrain)

We're going to see the capitol.
The miles go flying by-o.
We're here in Washington.
Oh no!
It's Washington, Ohio.

(Chorus)

(Refrain)

I think they have
a white house there,
but now I'm not so sure-y.
We're here in Washington.
Oh no!
It's Washington, Missouri.

(Chorus)

(Refrain)

I see the Lincoln Monument
Oh, tell me can it be?
We finally got to Washington,
Washington, DC. (Chorus)
