

Take Heart
(John 16:32b-33, ESV)

Words and Music
Karen D. Langdon

Ricky: (Spoken in intro) In John 16:32-33, Jesus gives help and hope for all those facing hard times.

(Verse 1)

Skeet:
Jesus' friends were sad, felt lost
Didn't understand the cost
For Jesus to take away their sin
He told them the hard times they'd face
But that joy would take its place
As surely they would see him again (then Jesus said)
"You will be scattered, each to his own home,
And will leave me alone.
Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me.

(Chorus 1)

Skeet:
I have said these things to you,
That in me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation.
But take heart; I have overcome the world."

(Verse 2)

Ricky:
If you're feeling sad and lost
Bring your troubles to the cross
For Jesus is there to see you through

Ricky & Hi Vox:
(Octaves)
Ask the Father in Jesus' name
For all you need, time and again
He'll answer; the Lord will care for you

Ricky:
(And it is true)
Ricky & Hi Vox:
(Octaves)
(Harmony at end)
He will always be your closest friend
Standing with you till the end
You'll never be alone; hear the words that Jesus speaks

(Chorus 2 and repeat)

Skeet, Ricky & Hi Vox:
(Harmony)
"I have said these things to you,
That in me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation.
But take heart; I have overcome the world."
"I have said these things to you,
That in me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation.
But take heart; I have overcome the world."

Skeet:
(Bridge and repeat)
When times are hard
When things are tough
Just trust in Jesus
He will always be enough

Skeet, Ricky & Hi Vox:
(Octave unison)
When times are hard
When things are tough
Just trust in Jesus
(Three-part harmony):
He will always be enough (enough)

Skeet, Ricky & Hi Vox:
(Harmony)
(Chorus 3 and repeat)
“I have said these things to you,
That in me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation.
But take heart; I have overcome the world.”
“I have said these things to you,
That in me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation.
But take heart; I have overcome the world.”
