(Make the sound of the baby chick and the lamb)
When you arrived, you hollered, "Waaaaahh"

A very happy birthday
A merry full of mirth day
A welcome to this earth day
Happy Birthday to you!

1. Put Another Candle On Your Birthday Cake is an adaptation of a short snippet from a song by Sheriff John Rovick written in 1952 and titled "Birthday Cake Polka."

The original lyric was:

Put another candle on my birthday cake

We're gonna bake a birthday cake

Put another candle on my birthday cake

I'm another year old today

The next three parts are original songs with easy to join in activities.

2. Out The Candles Go: Wiggle your fingers to show the flickering candles.

Then inhale and exhale forcefully to blow the candles out.

3. Celebrate The Day: Make the sounds of a baby chicken, a baby lamb, and a baby human. When you sing this song at a birthday party you can use the name of the birthday child. For example: "Let's celebrate the day of Sarah's birth."

4. Birthday Boogie: This is an alternative to the traditional Happy Birthday song.

Sing "Happy Birthday to you" then clap your hands two times. In the 2nd verse sing "Happy Birthday to ..." and include a name of the birthday person.

For example: "Happy birthday to David, clap, clap"

Each song in Birthday Medley has its own track number and you can sing all 4 parts or just choose one part.
