

13. Jenny Jenkins

This courting song dates back to Colonial times in America and, before that, to England at a time when colors represented different character traits. Now it's just fun to make up your own rhymes.

C G7
Will you wear red oh my dear, oh my dear

C G7
Will you wear red, Jenny Jenkins?

C F
I won't wear red, it's the color of my head

C
I'll buy me a folly roly, tilly tolly,

Seek-a-double use-a-cause a-roll to find me

C G7 C
Roll, Jennie Jenkins, Roll
