

16. Sand Song (Jacki Breger)

A bout thirty years ago, my cousin, Michael, and I were sitting in the sandbox with a preschooler who was experimenting with the tactile sensations of sand all over her. We all made up this song together.

I have sand in my hand, up my arms it feels so grand
I have sand on my feet, up my legs & on my seat
I have sand in my toes & in my nose & in my clothes
I have sand in my hair & on my body everywhere!

© Jacki Breger. Used by permission.