

23. The Silly Egg (Marcia Berman)

Marcia made up this song with her class when she was a preschool teacher and they were waiting (impatiently) for their eggs to hatch!

C

I had a chick and the chick laid an egg

C

G7

C

Laid an egg that rolled away

C

G7

C

Rolled away, rolled away

C

G7

C

Laid an egg that rolled away

The egg rolled away and I found it soon

The egg was dancing with the spoon...

The spoon ran away and the egg cried tears

The egg cried tears that rolled away...

The tears rolled away and the egg turned pink

She swam with the tears but she never did sink...

She swam with the tears till the tears dried up

Then she took a bath in a little red cup...

The cup rolled away and the egg rolled too

She rolled till she came to the animal zoo...

Lion roared, monkey dropped his date
And the little egg rolled right out the gate...

She rolled right home when the clock struck ten
She wanted to see her mama hen...

She kissed her mama on the very next day
And then she up and rolled away...

© Marcia Berman. Used by permission.