Dust Bunny (2:11)

Words & Music By James Brian Coffey (ASCAP)
James Coffey © 1999
Jim & George Publishing (ASCAP)

Early One Morning, I Turned On The Light
And There By My Bed Was An Amazing Sight
A Fuzzy Little Creature, All Alone
So I Decided Right Then I'd Give Him A Home

My Dust Bunny
He's My Little Dust Bunny
Yeah, I Know It Sounds Funny
But I Love Him So

He's Really No Trouble He's The Perfect Pet
But The Longer I Keep Him The Bigger He Gets
He's A Little Bit Of This And A Little Bit Of That
Dirt, Dust And Hair Is What Makes Him Fat

(Chorus)

Now He Hasn't Any Legs He Just Lays On The Floor
But He Can Really Move When You Open The Door
He Knows How To Roll Over And How To Play Dead
And His Favorite Place To Hide Is Under My Bed

(Chorus)

Then One Day I Came Home And Thought I Was About To Die
'Cause My Mommy Told Me That My Little Dust Bunny
Had Gone To That Big Vacuum Cleaner In The Sky
But I Learned A Little Secret And I'll Share It With You
If You Lose Your Dust Bunny Now Here's What You Do
You Put The Sweeper Away...Don't Clean Your Room
Hey, Your Little Dust Bunny He'll Come Back Real Soon

(Chorus)