

Get Your Head in a Book

(Words and Music by Liam Maloy)

Fire-breathing dragons. Cowboys in wagons.
Forests all dark and twisted.
A book can take you to places
That you never even knew existed.

So, get your head in a book
Get your head in a book
And get some stimulation for your imagination
Get your head into a book

Mermaids that sing. Fairies with wings.
And a million magic spells to fall under.
A book, you will find, will fill up your mind
With excitement, fun and wonder.

So, get your head in a book
Get your head in a book
And get some stimulation for your imagination
Get your head into a book

Evil Kings and Queens. Golden eggs. Magic beans.
A chocolate river that keeps on flowing.
Reading is contagious. Keep turning those pages.
And your mind will keep on growing.

So, get your head in a book
Get your head in a book
And get some stimulation for your imagination
Get your head into a book

So, get your head in a book
Get your head in a book
And get some stimulation for your imagination
Get your head into a book
