

Where is Santa Claus

Words and Music by Judy Pancoast © 2010

Verse One:

Welcome to my house, I like it when you come by here
To see my decorations, I work hard on them all year.
Lots of lights and I must confess, I lost count long ago!
Now I'm in just a little mess... 'cause I just don't know..
Uh oh!

CHORUS:

Where is Santa Claus? Where is Santa Claus?
Think I'm losing it 'cause he's not where I thought he was.
Is he up on the roof? Is he out on the lawn?
Can you see him through the window? Man he's gone!
Oh, where is Santa Claus? Where is Santa Claus?

Verse Two:

Can you see the snowmen? The elves and the candy canes?
Still I just don't know, man, I think I've gone insane.
I thought I left him there in his sleigh but now he's disappeared.
Did he and the reindeer just fly away? Santa come back here!
Uh oh!

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE:

My neighbors say my hobby is out of control;
I have too many decorations for one yard to hold;
Maybe it's true and I've gone too far
Cause I lost Santa in my own yard!

Verse Three:

If you find my Santa Claus please tell me where to look;
This feels kind of like "Where's Waldo" in a picture book.
Santa's got to be here somewhere, he just can't be lost;
Maybe he climbed up the chimney... I'll keep my fingers crossed!
Uh oh!

REPEAT CHORUS

Where is Santa Claus? Where is Santa Claus?
