

Bum de Bo

Lyrics & Music by Judy Pancoast © 2007

When we were kids we loved to explore
The trail to the woods at our back door;
We'd walk down that trail swinging our pails
Looking for blueberries for pie;
One sunny day as we walked along
We heard a deep voice, it was singing a song!
Loud and clear that song filled our ears...
It seemed to come out of the sky!

CHORUS

Bum-de Bo-oh...Bum-de bo-oh
Bum de bum de bum de bum de bo
Bum de bo oh..Bum de Bo-oh
Bum de bum de bum de boooo
We stopped in our tracks and looked up high...
Dropped our blueberries, there went that pie!
A giant stood there, with long curly hair,
Smiling and saying "Hello!"
He was just as tall as a double decker bus
And there he was looking down at us;
He said, "Don't run away, I just want to play
My name is Bum de Bo!"

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE

We played all day, it was really grand...
He picked us up in his giant hand;
We touched the clouds above the crowds
Looking at Earth below;
We said that we would always be friends
But after that day we never saw him again!
We'll never forget and we'll never regret
The day that we met Bum de Bo!
