

THE DOG DID IT

Lyrics & Music by Judy Pancoast © 2008

Home from work, feeling beat, Want to soak my tired feet
Open the door, see a mess; Say to my kids, "What is this? They say

CHORUS

The dog did it, the dog did it
Looks so innocent all the time, doggie leads a life of crime!
The dog did it, the dog did it
Let that little doggie take the blame.
Put my pizza by the sink, turn to pour myself a drink
When that pizza disappears they point to the one with floppy ears and say,

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE

Oh, if she could speak in her defense
Oh, you know she'd say "I'm innocent"
Oh, cause when you put the blame on me
Mama, you know you're barking up the wrong tree
Last night, walking down the hall...crayon writing on the wall
Say to myself, "That's not right! When'd that doggie learn to write?"

REPEAT CHORUS

In my bedroom just today all my clothes in disarray
Favorite pair of shoes is gone, seems that doggie tried them on
