

Sing, “I Love You”

---

What do you do when a flower smiles at you?
What do you do when a flower smiles at you?
What do you do when a flower smiles at you?
When a flower smiles at you, here’s what you do.

Sing, “I love you,” It’s the only thing to do.
Sing, “I love you,” when a flower smiles at you.

What do you do when a tree talks to you?
What do you do when a tree talks to you?
What do you do when a tree talks to you?
When a tree talks to you, here’s what you do.

Sing, “I love you,” It’s the only thing to do.
Sing “I love you,” when a tree talks to you.

What do you do when the rain dances with you?
What do you do when the rain dances with you?
What do you do when the rain dances with you?
When the rain dances with you, here’s what you do.

Sing, “I love you,” It’s the only thing to do.
Sing “I love you,” when the rain dances with you.

What do you do when a friend listens to you?
What do you do when a friend listens to you?
What do you do when a friend listens to you?
When a friend listens to you, here’s what you do.

Sing, “I love you,” It’s the only thing to do.

Sing, “I love you,” when a friend listens to you.
