

7. Let's Count!

Wow, look at all the cats!
Yeah, how many are there?
I don't know, let's count.
OK.

One two three four five,
six seven eight nine ten.

How many owls are there?
Well, let's count again.
One two three four five,
six seven eight nine ten.

How many bats are there?
Well, let's count again.
One two three four five,
six seven eight nine ten.

How many spiders are there?
Well, let's count again.
One two three four five,
six seven eight nine ten.

How many candies are there?
Well, let's count again.
One two three four five,
six seven eight nine ten.

That candy looks so yummy!
Let's eat all of them.
Ten nine eight seven six,
five four three two one,
zero!

There's no more candy!
Well, let's go get some.
