

THE LONELY TOOTH FAIRY
Peggy Gerner 2007

“What would happen if no boy, or no girl ever lost a tooth? What would The Tooth Fairy do? Would she go shopping? Maybe go on a trip somewhere? What would she do?”

You heard of the Tooth Fairy
Today she’s quite contrary
Cause no boy or girl has lost a tooth today
She has nothing to do
Except wait by your pillow
She’s holding a bag of quarters
And she thinks you ought to lose that front tooth soon.

Tooth Fairy
The Lonely Tooth Fairy
Has nothing to do today.

Can she tie a rope to it, to help you to lose it?
Or can she sit on top of your tongue with a little hammer
She’ll bang and she’ll clammer
Until that little tooth as loosened

There’s no use in
Hangin’ round and hoverin’
She’ll soon be recoverin’
When that little stinker finally comes out!

Tooth Fairy
The Lonely Tooth Fairy
Has nothing to do today.

Repeat
