

#6 Show Me Your Shoes (2:35)

Chorus

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes - Because I really want to see them.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes - listen to what I tell you.

Lift up the black shoes. Point to the white shoes.

Shake, shake the pink shoes. So many different kinds of shoes.

Wiggle all the red shoes. Wave with the blue shoes.

Stamp, stamp the blinky shoes. All the different kinds of shoes. Those....

Chorus

Shoes do something really neat

They cover up our stinky feet.

The heels and toes that need protection.

Just point those shoes in my direction.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. The ones with pictures on the outside.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. Ones that have Velcro.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. Ones that have shoe laces.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. Ones that show your toes.

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. Anybody have some green ones?

Shoes, shoes, show me your shoes. How about some orange ones?

ACTIVITIES

- 1. Children will need to lay on their backs during the song. Every time Mr. Al sings the chorus, let the children shake their feet in the air.*
- 2. Let the children listen to the verses and do the movements with their hands and feet.*
- 3. Listen for all the different kinds of shoes during the last chorus. Have the children lift up their shoes if they have one of those kinds of shoes.*
- 4. Cut or tear pictures of shoes out of magazines and make a shoe collage or a shoe big book to use with the song.*
- 5. Make a list of all the different kinds of shoes in the classroom.*
