

Susan B. Anthony

Music by John and Nancy Bryan

Lyrics by Nancy Bryan with Cady Stanton Elementary/ 5th Grade Chorus

She was born a Quaker
Many years ago
Would not take no for an answer
She became a hero

Said women are equal to men
Should never be abused
They should have the right to vote
And keep their children if they choose

Chorus
Susan B. Anthony
She fought for women's rights
Always said failure is impossible
She never gave up, never gave up the fight

Gave speeches all over the world
Said women should keep what they earned
Went door to door with frostbite on her feet
So women would be able to learn

Then in 1872
She cast her vote in Rochester
It was against the law
So they arrested her

Chorus

Miles and miles she traveled on the train
If she had given up
Where would things be today

Chorus
Susan B. Anthony
She fought for women's rights
Always said failure is impossible
She never gave up, never gave up the fight
