

25 BOUNCE+ (:57)

Gerald: You're right about that! My kids picked up some things from me that weren't so healthy. I used to smoke and act like a tough guy. Now, one of my grown-up kids still smokes, and thinks he's a tough guy. It's hard, when you want set a good example, but then you do things yourself that you don't want your kids to learn from.

Stu: When my dad would get angry with me, he'd says "Stuart! Don't you ever let me catch you doing that again". So I'd think to myself, "No problem!" and I'd say, "Okay Dad, I won't ever let you catch me doing that again."

Chad: You know he meant, " Stop doing that, ... because it's not okay for someone to do that."

Stu: Well, maybe, ... but the message I heard was, "don't get caught!"

P: Well, ... we have to stay Stonga-stronga!

Gerald: (laughing) And what's Stronga-stronga?

Quin: Yeah! What is it?

P: You'll catch on! Sing with us! We're really gonna need the box for this one!

Norm: Got my djembe too!

P: Then you get to push the button Norm! Here we go! (*BOING!!)
