He: Slowly, slowly I lifted my head
When you said that I could not stay
Lines shined where your tears had run
All my magic was gone
And the words wouldn't come
There was nothing more I could say.

Cho:(His) So good-bye
I won't burn you anymore
Y'cry when I say I still love you
So good-bye
I've been with someone else you know
A love without change doesn't grow
Good-bye

She: I left you there in the hall
And ran to my bed where I lay
And cried that our life had gone wrong
For you'd finally said what I'd known all along
What I feared each Sunday you left me alone
Going somewhere too, ... too far away.

Cho:(Hers) So good-bye
You can't burn me anymore
You were too afraid to try to love me
So good-bye
A love like mine would only scare
Away a ghost who wasn't really there
So good-bye.

Both: Wind whispers flow
Through the empty house
Dust swirls from under the door
He: That day when I left you I wanted to stay
She: That day when you left me
I wish you had stayed
Both: But it's gone, ... drifted away
And only the ghost of yesterday
Sighs forever, cries forever,
Dies forever, ... evermore.

*A relationship that's based on images won't last when the images change, as they inevitably do.
Loving has to have something alive and real to sustain it. [alternative to G(055430) is G(020030)]*
