I CRIED

Intro Am-Dm-Gm-A7

Today was real tough, I got out of bed I brushed my teeth and then I held my head And then I cried, cried, cried, cried Am-Dm, Gm

Dm-A7-Dm

I said "I won't wear those shoes, and I won't wear those socks And I won't go to school if I can't take my new rocks!" And then I cried, cried, cried, cried.

Breakfast was a scene, I wouldn't eat my eggs I got jelly in my hair and I got juice on my legs, And then I cried, cried, cried, cried.

School was no better, my best friend was sick I got a gumball on my homework and in gym I got kicked And then I cried, cried, cried, cried.

I went home and the house smelled great, fresh muffins out to cool My Daddy poured me a cup of milk, then he hugged me warm and still And then I cried, cried, cried, cried.

My Dad said "What is wrong?", and here's what I said, I said, "I wish that you and my Mom could live together again." And then I cried, cried, cried, cried

"Your Mom and I are friends, no longer husband and wife, But we will love you always, we'll love you all our lives." And then we cried, cried, cried, cried.

Today was real tough. I got into bed I snuggled with my teddy bear, and then laid down my head And then I cried, cried, cried, cried. Cried, cried, cried.

Written by Ruth Pelham, ©1982, Ruth Pelham (ASCAP) On Stayin' Over – www.peteralsop.com