Movies and Popcorn and Video Games* x8

It's Saturday morning I want something to do with my boredom
So I'm hunting I'm tired of normal
Want some options I'm ready for movies
And some popcorn and some popcorn and some popcorn
With butter and cheese as the topping
So you better freeze like a possum
If you don't want me to go blaka boom blacka boom

I ain't tell you bout my video games

I been so bored let me get off my chest
This so played out like my SNES

Been going so hard since the Genesis

Take out the cartridge and blow out the dust

Going out to the movies
Popcorn in my back teeth
Soda pop in the cup hold
3D google with a nerd rope
Crowd packed full of people
Seen the first one this the sequel
First the preview then the feature
Every weekend you know I need some

Movies and Popcorn and Video Games* x4

You know what it do

Eat that mushroom and look how much I grew (Mario)
I'm sick with the flu
I could give you the ring like you slipped in some poo
You step to my crew (Hadouken)
I'll knock you out like it's Street Fighter 2 (finish him)
Don't mind if I do and I'll put you back in the box when I'm through
