

I Dressed Myself

© Rachel Arntson and Chez Raginiak, 2003

Hi kids. I'd like to tell you a story, but I need your help.
Please sing with me na, na, na, na.

Verse

Today I got dressed all by myself,
And I had no help at all.
I showed my mom - she laughed out loud,
But I stood there proud and tall.
I dressed myself like a three-year-old.
Behold, people, behold!
I dressed myself like never before,
And this is what I wore.

Chorus

Red water boots, Hawaiian shirt,
Baggy shorts with a lot of dirt.
Bright orange headband, Daddy's tie.
I looked great - didn't even try.
Na, na, na
Doo, doo, doo, doo

Verse

My mom took a pin off the shelf,
That said, "I dressed myself."
She proudly pinned it on my chest,
And said, "You are the best!"
I dressed myself like a three-year-old.
Behold, people, behold!
I dressed myself like never before,
And this is what I wore:

Chorus
